Wind and the Sun wanted to know who was stronger. One day they saw a man walking along the road. The Sun said, "Let's have a race and see who can make the man take off his clothes." The North Wind agreed. Then he shouted at the man and blew as hard as he could. But the man felt cold and put on a sweater. A few minutes later, the Sun just smiled and shone brightly. Soon the man enjoyed the warm sunlight and took off his clothes. The Sun won the race. Finally the North Wind said to the Sun, "Now I understand the true power isn't about being scary. It means treating others politely."
